

just and honest to you; but this Man has not, (pointing to the Thief) for I saw him take Goods privately out of the Warehouse and carry them to the Pawn-Brokers. The Master was astonished! He looked at the Letter, found the Mark, and saw the Boy was innocent, and then searching the Pawn-brokers, the Goods were found.

Toby knew that it was his Duty not only to be honest himself, but, if possible, to make others so, and you will presently see how God Almighty blessed him for it, and how he was rewarded for his Fidelity.

After this Mr. Goodwill placed great Confidence in Toby, and his Affairs so prospered, that he became very rich. He then took in Toby as a Partner with him, and at his Death left him the whole Trade, and a large Sum of Money, which is still increasing; and from being a little ragged Boy and living in that Hut, he now rides in this fine Coach. Think of this, my Dear Giles, and learn your Book, and say your Prayers, and go to Church, and be honest and good and industrious, that you may get a Coach also.

How Little Giles first acquired his

AS soon as Gaffer Gingerbread told this Story of Sir Toby and little Giles ran up to his Father, and that he would give him a Book him to read, that he might become a Man as Sir Toby Thompson.

Gaffer Gingerbread, who was a good Scholar, pulled a Book from his Pocket, and sitting down under
